Do you offer financial aid or scholarships?

Yes. Helping students get to camp is one of our great joys. Click the link on the main page to download the scholarship application. Fill out the form and submit to the Student Pastor at your campus. You can also scan/email to students@discoverychurch.org. Funds are limited and subject to approval.

How is my student getting to camp?

Parents are responsible for getting their child to Discovery Church Central Campus
4400 S. Orange Ave
Orlando, FL 32806

Charter buses will depart from church and transport students, leaders, and luggage to camp

Who is taking care of my student?

Camp is led by experienced DCStudents staff, along with an army of trained volunteers who are passionate about students. Most adult volunteers are currently serving as mentors and leaders in DCStudents. All adults have completed the interview process and background check.

What's the dress code?

Throughout the day: Casual Dress. It's summer...in Florida. Pack clothes that protect from the sun and keep you cool.

Team Building: Athletic clothing that you don't mind getting dirty/messy/or thrown away.

Outfits that reveal mid-drift, cleavage or underwear are not permitted.

Swimsuits: Girls one-piece suit or two piece w/tank top. Tankinis are acceptable

What are the sleeping arrangements like?

Camp Geneva offers dorms with a large and open layout which can hold 15-30 bunk beds in a dorm. Bathrooms and showers are located in each dorm. Each student has their own twin size bunk. Each student is responsible for providing their own bedding (sleeping bag or sheets/blanket, and pillow).

Will I get to a room with my friends?

Yes, because of the size of the dorms, it is almost guaranteed that you'll be in a room with your friends

What are my students eating?

Camp Geneva provides 3 complete meals a day. The Snack Shack will be available in the afternoon and evening, serving chips, candy, drinks, and ice cream. Items are typically $1, so plan to pack spending money as needed. If your student has dietary needs, please include details on the registration form.

When do I find out what team I'm on and what dorm I am in?

Team list will be posted once registration is closed. Stay tuned!
